ANKING SAYS REDS ROUTED NEAR SUCHOW

Government Asserts That 90,000 Casualties Have Been Inflicted On Communists

MAY BE REGROUPING

Nanking, Nov. 17.—(P)—The government asserted today 90,000 casualties were inflicted on Reds routed east of Suchow, gateway to Nanking.

The official and pro-government ports buoyed the capital. But teletypes, mindful of other government claims at Tsinan, Chinnin and Mukden just before they fell to the Reds, waited for more information.

These points, however, appear true on the basis of information received:

1. The Chinese Air Force blunted Red attacks across the open country east of Suchow, 200 miles northwest of the capital.
2. Gen. Huang Po-Tao's Seventh Army group, which was isolated east of Suchow, lost more than half of its full strength of troops.

It survived repeated attacks and still is in the fields. Its ability to take and give punishment, heartened other government units.

3. The executive Yuan ordered martial law extended to Tsinan, the seat of the American naval base in western Pacific. The order goes now to President Chiang Kai-shek for implementation. The action followed the application of martial law to Nanking, Shanghai and Suchow.

4. Gen. Pai Chung-Hsi's four national armies from Hankow approached the Fukow-Suchow salt marsh from the west after a forced march of 180 miles.

Qualified observers here hold the opinion that the Reds were regrouping for another assault in the east of being on the run.

Most Chinese expressed doubt about the Suchow "victory" as a sweeping as pictured by the newspapers and government. But it appeared that Chiang Kai-shek's troops at least held their own in the first phases of the great Suchow battle in which more than 60,000 men assertedly were committed.

Worried Chinese were told by the Chinese Central News Agency that the Communists had suffered in the Suchow front less than 200 miles from their capital "the most disastrous defeat ever received from the hands of government troops."

The Communist radio gave a sharply different picture. It indicated Red troops were pushing east to clamp a pincers on government forces. Suchow, itself, under this version, no longer would have any serious tactical value in the battle affecting all central China.

(The broadcast claimed seizure of Suining, 48 miles southeast of Suchow. This would be less than 200 miles from joining the ends of an encirclement around Suchow, for the insurgents appear to have (Turn to Page Eight)

Alleged Murderer Caught in Denver

Denver, Nov. 17.—(P)—Arrangements were under way today to return 35-year-old Dominic Daverse to Greensburg, Pa., where he is divorced wife was shot to death more than 20 months ago.

Officers who arrested him here yesterday said Daverse admitted the slaying.

Detective H. L. Fayram said Daverse at the time of his arrest was working as an attendant at a local hospital.

Fayram quoted Daverse as saying: "I met her on the street. I shot her four or five times with a pistol."

Taken to the police station Daverse signed a waiver to return to Greensburg for trial. At Greensburg the police said they would contact federal authorities and arrange to have the man brought here. It was believed he would be accompanied by a U. S. marshal as federal grand jury has indicted him on a charge of "unlawful light to prevent prosecution."

The shooting occurred April 11, 1947.

Two Sheffield World War II Casualties Being Returned

Sheffield, Nov. 17.—Word has been received by families here that two more World War II war dead are en route home from overseas for final rites and reinterment. They are Second Lieutenant James J. Moran, Jr., and Sgt. William G. Anish.

Mrs. Helen Farr, 103 Oak street, as received notification that the body of her husband, Lt. Moran, killed in action near Pisa, Italy, in July 22, 1944, is on the way home. Plans have been made for his body to be reinterred in Arlington National Cemetery, Arlington, Va.

Mrs. Moran was born in St. Marys on June 5, 1917, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Moran. Besides his wife and parents, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Robert Christie, Warren, and

Tallman to Oppose Duff In Contest For President Pro Tempore of the State Senate

Harrisburg, Nov. 17.—(P)—An open split developed today in the Republican-dominated 1949 legislature.

The division came to the surface with the announcement by Sen. O. J. Tallman (R-Lehigh) that he would oppose M. Harvey Taylor, GOP state chairman, for the office of president pro tempore of the state senate.

"I am definitely a candidate for president pro tempore," said the Allentown senator.

The senate will reconvene with the opening of the 1949 legislature next January. Republican senators will meet at Hershey Friday to decide on their leadership.

Tallman, majority leader in the 1947 session, made his announcement with the knowledge that Taylor himself was seeking re-election to that post with the backing of Gov. James H. Duff.

The Lehigh county senator, however, declined to comment on widespread reports that he has the all-out backing of former U. S. Senator Joseph Grundy, Bristol manufacturer, and G. Mason Owlett, GOP national committeeman and president of the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Association.

Tallman resides in the same congressional district as Grundy. Both district delegates to the Republican national convention last June backed the presidential nomination of Thomas E. Dewey against the choice of Duff.

The Republicans have 35 votes in the coming session of the senate, one more than two years ago, an ample margin to pass any party legislation.

A split in their ranks, however, would give the Democratic senators the balance of power on issues on which Duff and the Grundy faction disagree.

The big fight is expected to be on taxes. The 1949 general assembly must decide if it will continue Duff's $135,000,000 tax program for two more years.

This includes postponement of the manufacturer's exemption of the capital stock tax, bitterly opposed unsuccessfully in the 1947 session by Grundy and Owlett through the Pennsylvania Manufacturers Association.

The split left wide open the question of who will be the senate Republican floor leader. Tallman, who holds that post now, was reported not to be favoring any particular candidate.

Sen. John Walker (R-Allegheny) has been mentioned for caucus chairman. The new division, however, may open the way for him to seek the majority leadership.

Taylor, who called the caucus earlier this week said at that time the question of his reelection is "up to the senators."

Expert Sees Drop In Food Prices But Not Living Costs

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—(P)—Mrs. Housewife can count on a drop in food prices, but she shouldn't expect the cost of living to go down.

A man who ought to know, Ewan Clague, commissioner of the Labor Department's Bureau of Labor Statistics, said the food price fall will be balanced by increases in items in heavy demand.

Among these he listed rents, steel, automobiles and Marshall plan exports.

Clague spoke yesterday at a conference arranged by the industrial council of the Chamber of Commerce.

"At present," he told 250 business executives, "our consumer prices have reached a peak and farm prices are, if anything, coming down."

"At the same time," Clague added, "there is a tremendous upward pressure starting in commodities where there still exists a heavy postwar demand."

Clague figured that "the general economic outlook appears very favorable," adding that industrial employment is at an all-time high with 46,000,000 holding jobs, a gain of 3,000,000 since the end of the war.

He warned, however, that shortages in the supply of skilled labor "I very likely occur on a greater scale than has been true since the war years, and many employers in some areas will find themselves badly pinched for labor."

Returning to the consumer demand for commodities, Clague predicted that "some readjustments" will be made "in industries where production has caught up with demand and where some consumer resistance to high prices is evident."

"These include such lines," he said, "as textiles, clothing, shoes, radios, furniture, and some electrical appliances. These readjustments, however, are not likely to be sharp or to affect the general economic outlook."

The annual CIO convention will open Monday.

Friends of Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, were busy today stamping out an exceedingly idle rumor that he might run for the CIO presidency. They said with the utmost emphasis that Reuther "is definitely not a candidate."

Wind and Rain Cause Damage in Midwest

Chicago, Nov. 1.—(P)—A wind and rain storm which swept over five midwest states yesterday, causing some property damage, moved northeastward across the Great Lakes region today.

Rain fell today from the Middle Atlantic states southward to Georgia. Heavy rains were reported in some parts of the lakes region during the night, with gusts of more than 70 miles per hour. Some light snow fell in Michigan.

NO PROGRESS IN SETTLING DOCK STRIKE

Effects of Shipping Tieup In Ports From Maine to Virginia Being Felt In Industry

REPORT HUGE LOSSES

Washington, Nov. 17.—(P)—The government sent one of its top mediators to New York today to try to end the crippling east coast dock strike.

William M. Margolis, assistant to Director Cyrus S. Ching of the Federal Mediation Service, left by plane for conferences with union and management leaders.

Margolis' immediate objective was understood to be to get both sides together seeking a strike-ending solution. There have been no union-management peace talks since the walkout began more than a week ago.

Government officials are known to feel that the strike was engineered by left-wing influences in the AFL-ILA union. Some feel, too, that the strike developed chiefly from a challenge to the union leadership of Joseph Ryan, who is regarded as anti-Communist. They discount the theory expressed by some observers that the left-wingers wanted to cripple European Recovery aid shipping.

By The Associated Press

There appeared some hope today of early settlement of the 11-week-old west coast shipping strike but no progress was reported toward ending the walkout of 65,000 east coast AFL dock workers.

Effects of the shipping tieup in ports from Maine to Virginia were being felt in many segments of industry and business. Estimates of losses ran into many millions of dollars since the AFL International Longshoremen's Association walked out eight days ago in a dispute over wages. Thousands of railroad, tugboat and trucking workers have been made idle.

The Port of Halifax was reopened and the 2,000 Longshoremen will handle all goods not consigned to United States ports. Earlier the Halifax Longshoremen's Association said it would seal off Halifax from any more ships diverted because of the strike.

In San Francisco, negotiators in the Pacific Coast shipping tieup reported "progress is being made." The Waterfront Employers Association and the CIO Longshoremen's Union reached a tentative agreement on the issue of hiring halls. The hiring halls will stay under union control.

The AFL Screen Extras Guild in Hollywood said its members voted 2,512 to 67 to reject an employer proposal for continuing the mob scene extra's pay bracket of $9.45 a day. The Guild said it will ask the studios to make a new offer.

For the third day a strike of 150 bus drivers and mechanics of the Edwards Lakes-To-Sea system halted operations over 1,500 miles of route in Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, Ohio and Washington, D. C.

SEVEN ARE DEAD IN WEST COAST STORM

Seattle, Nov. 17.—(P)—A coastal storm was gradually subsiding today after causing deaths and wrecking three vessels.

Three men were lost when the tug Star, Clair smashed onto rocks near Port San Juan, B. C. Five others reached shore in a lifeboat.

Two more men were missing from the tug Ruby Eight, which sank in Puget Sound.

Another man died of a heart attack as the coast guard was attempting rescue of him and 10 others from their sinking tug Neptune off the Columbia river mouth.

The 10 men were saved by the coast guard in a hazardous rubber boat rescue but the one man died after falling into the sea.

The seventh victim was a woman last overboard from the ferry Princess Victoria between Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

TOWNSHIP TEACHERS ARE STILL ON STRIKE

Pottsville, Nov. 17.—(P)—Eight teachers in Blythe township have gone on strike again in an effort to secure back salaries.

The teachers—all men—left their classrooms yesterday, saying the State Department of Public Instruction failed to fulfill a promise to provide their salaries from Sept. 1 through Jan. 1, 1949.

They were acting, they said on behalf of a like number of women teachers who remained at work.

The teachers in the little eastern Pennsylvania township called a similar strike Oct. 4. At that time they said they had not been paid since Mar. 31, and offered, if necessary, to operate township coal mines to provide revenue needed to run the schools.

Eventually their walkout forced the township schools to close.

Strike Ties Up Xmas Mail for Servicemen Overseas

Postal clerks form a small mountain with the hundreds of mail packages piling up at the Army Base Post Office in Boston due to the longshoremen's strike that has crippled east coast shipping. Many of the packages are Christmas gifts for servicemen overseas.

Volunteers to be Credited Against Community Quotas

Washington, Nov. 17.—(P)—Every community with volunteers in the Armed Services—and that means just about all communities—will be "credited" with the number of volunteers against its draft calls.

This was explained today by officials at Selective Service headquarters who said an inventory has been taken to establish the home town of every soldier, sailor, marine, airman, WAC, WAF and WAVE.

Cards with this information go directly from the camps and stations to state selective service directors who then can claim a credit against the state's draft quota.

At the same time the state directors will credit each of their local boards with the volunteers in the armed services when the inventory was taken, October 31.

The credits will be applied to future draft calls, the official explained—how soon, state directors would be better able to estimate.

Here's how the system will work once all the cards are in: Let's take town A which has 100 men of draft age. Ten are already in the Armed Services and do not have to register.

The remaining 90 register and 60 of them pass physical examinations and are classified I-A.

The town is given a quota, say, of five men. But it already has 10 men in the service, so, if the draft call does not change, its credit takes care of two calls.

In the beginning, however, since no one knows how many credits each town will receive until the figures are in, town A will fill its quota and apply the credits later on.

So far as possible, the official pointed out, the states will work out the details with their local boards, with Selective Service headquarters staying in the background.

For that reason, the inventory cards are sent to the home states instead of Washington, and all breakdown of state figures will be made in the states.

WORKMAN KILLED

Pittsburgh, Nov. 17.—(P)—When his clothing caught in a machine, Edward Hall, 65, of Verona, was killed yesterday in an accident at the Blaw-Knox Company. He leaves his wife, two sons and two daughters.

New Legislature Is Facing A Teachers' Salary Showdown

Harrisburg, Nov. 17.—(P)—The 1949 Pennsylvania legislature is facing another showdown on controversial issue of teacher salaries.

The Pennsylvania State Teachers Association already is on record that present salary scales are too low in light of the rising cost of living. It insists that unless the average pay is lifted to $2,717, the teachers will be shortchanged to the extent of $259.

On the other hand, lawmakers close to the school problem point out that the commonwealth expended to increasing school grants $20,000,000 for the next two fiscal years without a single change in the present school laws.

"It will be quite a tussle," commented Sen. Frederick L. Homsher (R-Lancaster) who as chairman of the senate education committee has been in the forefront of every teacher salary and subsidy fight of recent sessions of the legislature.

Homsher, who also heads a committee of the general assembly's joint state government commission, said that in addition to higher salary scales, teacher organizations also are seeking a liberalized teacher retirement plan.

Complicating the situation for the legislators will be the scheduled switch from assessed valuations to market values of real estate as a basis for calculating the amount of state aid each school district will receive.

A 1947 law, creating the state tax equalization board, set this change-over for July 1, 1949. The board already has indicated its studies so far show that there is a wide variance between assessed values and market values in most of the state's 2500 school districts.

Princess and Son Are Making Good Progress

London, Nov. 17.—(P)—Princess Elizabeth spent an excellent night and she and her son "continue to make good progress," her doctors reported today.

After visiting the princess, who gave birth to a seven-pound, six ounce prince Sunday night, physicians Sir William Gilliat and Sir John Wear made a personal report to the queen.

Court sources reported no additional bulletins were expected today.

Body of Local Soldier Will Arrive Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Saporito, Sr., 13 Hinkle street, have been advised by the Department of the Army that the body of their son, Pfc. Thomas Anthony Saporito, is en route home from Italy and will arrive here Friday morning from the Philadelphia Quartermaster Depot.

Removal will be made to the Leo D. Gibson Funeral Home, where friends may pay their respects from 10 a. m. until 3 p. m. Friday. At that hour, a prayer service will be held at the funeral home, conducted by Father M. E. Dailey, of Holy Redeemer parish.

Interment will follow in St. Joseph's cemetery. Friends are asked to kindly omit flowers.

Pfc. Saporito was born in Warren on September 17, 1924, and attended local grade and high schools. Prior to going into the army, he had been employed by the Penn Bowling Center and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and was a member of Holy Redeemer church.

He entered service on September 20, 1943, and had his basic infantry training at Camp Blanding, Fla. He was sent overseas on February 22, from Ft. George Meade, Md., going to Africa and later transferred to Italy.

He died in Italy on October 1, 1944, of wounds received in action September 28 of the same year while serving with Company E, 349th Infantry, and has been temporarily buried in the U. S. Military Cemetery at Castelfortino, Italy.

Besides his parents, Charles and Ann Brindis Saporito, he leaves two sisters and seven brothers: Mary, Charles, Ross, Dominick, Thomas Allen and Rose, all of home; Anthony, of Warren, who served two years in the navy during the war; Robert, SR, USN, at Great Lakes Naval Training Station, and Frank, of Warren.

Coastal City Has Welcome Mat Out For Smog Victims

Wilmington, N. C., Nov. 17.—(P)—This coastal city was brushing off its welcome mat today for 50 survivors of the death-dealing smog that covered Donora, Pa., Oct. 30.

The Pennsylvanians will fly here tomorrow for a week's vacation. They'll be guests of the Wilmington and Wrightsville Beach Junior Chambers of Commerce which are underwriting all expenses including the airline fares.

The vacationers will be given a big welcome by Wilmington civic officials when they arrive. After that, they'll settle down in cottages at nearby Wrightsville Beach. Far removed from the fatal mixture of fog and smoke that killed 20 of their fellow townsmen, they'll breathe in brisk ocean breezes as they fish, boat ride, tour nearby plantations and attend oyster roasts.

At Donora last night, Miss Elizabeth Ostrander, secretary of the Donora Board of Health, said that those who suffered most will make the trip.

Steve Kostelek, about 60, expressed the happy anticipation of the group.

Why, I've never been in an airplane before. Just think of that! And now, by golly, I'm going to North Carolina. It's just wonderful.

CONTROVERSY IS CONSIDERED PEACE THREAT

East and West Once More State Positions and Each Again Declines To Budge

LEADERS ARE HOPEFUL

Paris, Nov. 17.—(P)—The United States, Britain and France told top U. N. officials formally today they want the Berlin dispute with Russia left in the hands of the Security Council to be dealt with as a threat to peace.

The three powers reaffirmed their decision against negotiating with Russia on Berlin while the Soviet bloc's policy of the western sector continues. These were the two main points of the west's argument.

The net result of the latest flurry of excitement in the United Nations was this: The east and west have once more stated their positions and each has once again declined to budge.

The western powers formalized their stand in replies to the appeal by H. V. Evatt, the assembly president, and Trygve Lie, the U. N. secretary-general, who asked the four powers to compose their differences for the good of world peace.

Dr. Evatt and Secretary-General Lie received the replies from the delegation chiefs without comment. Informed quarters said, however, the two would continue efforts looking for a peaceful solution, despite this apparent stalemate.

Russia already had replied. She insisted as before that the Berlin question is part of the all-German question and must be discussed by the Council of Foreign Ministers.

The stalemate was on again. The United States once again said it would not negotiate the issue of Berlin under the threat implicit in the Russian blockade.

Britain said the Russian veto of a Berlin solution offered by the so-called neutrals of the Security Council stood in the way of progress toward a settlement. That proposal had called for lifting of the blockade, to be followed immediately by a four-power conference.

The British also replied to the appeal of H. V. Evatt, the assembly president, and Trygve Lie, the secretary-general, that the most hopeful approach to a Berlin solution would be to leave it to the Security Council.

Replacements Big Issue For Truman

Key West, Fla., Nov. 17.—(P)—President Truman's delay in the reorganization of his administration was attributed to "close associates today" to concern about picking replacement for those who are to go.

These sources, unquotable by name, said the president is in no hurry to shake up his cabinet until he completes selection of a team to carry on during the next four years.

As he held a news conference here yesterday, everybody has been shuffling the cabinet around but the president. Mr. Truman added that he would act at the proper time.

His major problem will be to pick a new secretary of defense to replace James V. Forrestal and a man to succeed Robert B. Lovett when the latter steps out as undersecretary of state.

No decision has been made in either case.

Mr. Truman is flying back to Washington Sunday to bring an end to his two weeks post-campaign vacation at the naval submarine base here.

Representative Sam Rayburn, slated to be speaker of the house again when congress meets in January, will join him here Thursday.

Jury May Get Venango Case During Day

Franklin, Nov. 17 — Eugene O'Shea, of Titusville, and Iley M. Brewer of Corry, on trial here before Judge McCracken for burglary, went on the witness stand Tuesday. They gave in detail their version of their movements on the night of Friday, August 13, when two men broke into the store of J. W. Slye Farm Implement Company at Seneca. Both men offered alibis.

O'Shea said he was at a cottage along the Allegheny river near Tionesta with a man named Myers and two girls he could not identify. Brewer said he was wandering through woods and fields after his car had been stolen from him by two hitchhikers. Both men denied they had anything to do with the burglary and never were at the Slye store.

The two defendants declared they had undergone physical abuse at the hands of State Police, which the officers had emphatically denied.

A bit of evidence concerning O'Shea's past record crept into the case when O'Shea was being cross-examined. It was not permissible for the prosecution to introduce any evidence of this character, but O'Shea himself opened the way. He referred to "other dealings" with police officers, and District Attorney Skelly pointed out that statement like a football player onto a tumbled ball. Before he got through questioning the witness O'Shea admitted he had been arrested once for robbery.

Altogether, in presenting its case, the state has called 13 witnesses, eight on Monday and ten Tuesday forenoon. The testimony is expected to be finished before noon today, when the attorneys will begin summing up.

The morning testimony Tuesday dealt principally with the prosecution's efforts to tie the defendants to the scene of the burglary by means of oafs, the Brewer car and the burglar tools in it.

Youngsville, Nov. 17—At 7:30 p. m. Sunday, November 23, an interesting service will be held in the Methodist church in connection with the presentation of a charter to Troop 24 by Warren County Scouting officials.

The meeting is open to the public and it is expected there will be a good attendance, which will include Girl Scouts and Brownies as well as Boy Scouts of the community.

Louis Crippen will speak on Scouting. A special feature will be a reel of sound motion pictures on Scouting, two reels of religious pictures and some travel pictures shown by Archie Hunter, of Warren.

Youngsville WCTU will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Eluis, College street. Mrs. Anna Carr will be co-hostess and a good program is to be presented. T/Sgt. Warren Husted and family left Monday for Foughkeape, N. State police said Sunday they were still attempting to learn where the boy and his 15-year-old alleged attacker obtained liquor police claim they were drinking prior to the stabbing.

Authorities are searching for the unidentified bear hunter who wounded Leroy Tarr, 42, of Franklin, near Siegel, Jefferson county, then, died when he saw he had hit a human being. The bullet fired at close range entered one hip, came out the knee and struck the other leg. Tarr said the hunter who fired the shot approached to within a few feet of him. Then when he cried out for aid, the stranger fled through the woods.

FRACTURES TREATED
Two fractures were treated at the emergency ward of Warren General Hospital yesterday. Lawrence DeVore, Jackson street extension, who fell twelve feet from the roof of a camp he was building, sustained a fractured left arm. Milford Fitzsimmons, of Roulette, employed by F. C. Paterson, Bradford, was treated for a fractured right big toe when he dropped a length of pipe on it.

EMPLOYMENT HIGH
A bulletin from the Department of Labor and Industry in Harrisburg states that industrial employment in Pennsylvania from mid-August to mid-September showed the second highest total on record and only 3,500 below the all time high peak of last December. Four of the major industrial groups covered showed increases. They were manufacturing, trade, contract construction and government. Minor decreases took place among mining, transportation, public utilities, services and miscellaneous.

HUNTERS NEAR DEATH
Frank Daniels of Bradford and four other duck hunters narrowly escaped drowning Monday when their boat sank in the Mississippi river, south of Burlington, Ia., according to word received in Bradford Tuesday. A member of the party was attaching a motor to the rear of the boat when the weight apparently caused the craft to nose under the water. Daniels and three others in the party were thrown into 20 feet of water. All were clad in heavy hunting clothing and rubber boots. According to reports Daniels, one-time professional baseball player, went down twice before he was pulled to safety by two men who arrived in another boat.

LARGE SUM ASKED
A suit for medical expenses and damages totaling $107,577.80 as the result of a fall on a sidewalk one February evening in 1947 has been filed at the court house in Meadville, involving two well-known Titusville residents. Miss Tena Goldstein, 203 East Spring street, seeks to recover that amount from Les Coates, owner of the Chevrolet-Oldsmobile garage at 120 East Central avenue. She alleges that her fall, which broke her hip, was the "result of the carelessness and negligence" of Mr. Coates in permitting "ridges and hollows" of ice and snow to accumulate on a sidewalk which already had "large repressed areas and irregular cavities or openings" in it. The accident occurred on Feb. 20, 1947, and has been the subject of much negotiation between the parties since that time.

County Judge Gives Talk In Youngsville

Youngsville, Nov. 17—At the meeting of the local PTA held on Tuesday in the high school auditorium, Judge Allison D. Wade, of Warren, gave an earnest address on the theme "A Strong Land," pointing out many dangerous trends in the world in general and in our own United States.

He raised some controversial questions concerning private ownership, quoting some celebrated American views on this question, and plainly showing the need of all good citizens to watch and be careful that we do not lose our personal liberty in America.

Tuesday's evening program opened with the singing of "America the Beautiful," followed by a business session with the president, Mrs. Wendell Engstrom, in charge. Reports showed that the Youngsville unit is taking a keen interest in the school. The group has supplied some real school needs and in their plans for the young people in a social way, their sponsorship of the Cub Scouts, the Pre-school Mothers Club, and in their program of the year, giving every meeting some special point of interest.

The subject of Tuesday's meeting was "School Education," Miss Hyde gave two Thanksgiving readings. The first, a picture of the Pilgrims' Thanksgiving, and the second a poem, "Over the River and Through the Woods," on Thanksgiving day. Mrs. Pauline Halford had charge of program with two violin numbers, "When Day Is Done," and a selection from Victor Herbert's works. Following the address by Judge Wade and a period of open forum, all were invited to the school cafeteria rooms, where refreshments were served by school children's mothers.

The December program will be given by the grade school children. All grade children are to receive a treat from the PTA at the cafeteria following their program.

COLE HILL

Cole Hill, Nov. 16—Steve Bosko, Davy Hill, was on the hill Wednesday and Thursday with his new sking machine to husk corn for forward Eastman and Joe Franko. Two farms yielded about 500 bushels of corn which was left over after filling three silos this fall. Mr. Bosko reports finding ring-neck pheasants in nearly every corn field this fall. In one field on the hill eleven rabbits ran out before the machine.

Guy T. Broadhead, of Busti, N. Y., who died Thursday, was buried in the Busti, N. Y., cemetery to-lowing final rites at the Schoonover Funeral Home at 2:00 p. m. Sunday in Sugar Grove. Mr. Broadhead was well known in this vicinity as cattle buyer for many years before trucks were used to transport cattle. Cattle were brought up and driven to Tidoute and Youngville in a herd during World War I and shipped in freight cars to market.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hockman of Pittsfield on a son born November 11 at the Warren General hospital. Mrs. Hockman is a daughter of Stanley Flow of Pittsfield, and Mr. Hockman is a son of Mrs. Albozek, former resident of Cole Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Houghwot, of Russell, were Sunday guests of the latter's nephew, and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Wentworth, and family.

Mrs. Roman Leofsky, of Mickel Hill, were visiting friends on the hill Friday.

Frank Sudul, of Holden Hill, was a Sunday visitor on the hill. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Camp, of Corry, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Camp last Sunday.

The bear season, opening Monday morning, found several hunters taking to the woods in the vicinity of Hedge Hog.

Earl Messinger, who hauls our farmers' milk to the Carnation milk plant in Corry, started Monday to make his trips every other day through the winter months.

Several of the farmers have started butchering their hogs for their winter's supply of meat. The hogs should be of top quality fattened on corn grown this year. There are a lot of young pigs for sale in this vicinity. Prices are nearly as high as they were in the spring.

The little bow of string or ribbon on the sweatband of men's hats is believed by some to date from the time when men's hats were adjustable.

Boyle Offers Suggestions For Cabinet Appointments

Times Topics

LICENSES SUSPENDED

The State Liquor Control board has announced the suspension of the license of the American Legion post in Franklin for a period of 15 days for violations.

DIESEL SWITCH ENGINE

A fourth diesel-electric switching locomotive, part of the Erie Railroad's drive for "smokeless railroading" in Meadville, was delivered to the railroad yards there Friday night. Trainmaster F. E. Navin has announced.

IN WRONG TUB

A rooming house owner called Titusville police Saturday night for help in removing a stranger who was sleeping in a bathtub there. The man was taken to the police station and charged with drunkenness, police said.

VETS' BAND BENEFIT

The public is extended a cordial invitation to attend the benefit dance to be held for the VFW Band on Thursday evening at the Marconi Outing Club. There will be round and square dancing, from nine until twelve, and Ford Winner's Orchestra will be playing.

LAKE BEACH PROJECT

On the heels of a community-wide celebration over their reconstructed, widened main street, Conneaut Lake residents Sunday started another major project, the building of a southwestern lake beach. For eight hours volunteers from the Chamber of Commerce hauled 135 loads of donated fill dirt and dumped it along the sea wall they had constructed earlier.

CORRY BUDGET

Whether an increase will be made in Corry's property tax millage and $2 per capita tax apparently hinges on how many 1948 paving assessments are paid before the end of December. Finance Director Walter Sweet announced Saturday. On the basis of requisitions turned in by department heads, the next budget will be approximately the same as last year's, officials said.

L.O.O.M. PLANS PARTY

The annual "Old Timers" and Past Governors' party will be held this evening by Warren Lodge No. 109, Loyal Order of Moose. The meeting will start promptly at eight o'clock, and the entire session will be handled by past governors of the lodge. All of the past governors and members who have belonged to the lodge twenty years or more are to be honored. Leo W. Ryan, past supreme governor of the order will be the principal speaker. Following the business session a high class show will be presented, refreshments will be served and a turkey party will be held. This affair is held on the third Wednesday of November of each year and a large group of members always attends.

New York—(AP)—President Truman is finding no shortage of volunteer carpenters in his task of building his 1949 cabinet.

Everybody is lolling up with a new idea. If all who have been suggested for a place were included, the cabinet would have to have more posts than a fence around Texas.

Just in fun, editor and publisher, magazine of the press, nominated a formidable cabinet composed entirely of newspapermen.

And Eric Johnston, president of the Motion Picture Producers Association, more seriously advanced the thought that America's top labor leaders should be chosen for key diplomatic jobs abroad.

This idea is fascinating. If it is carried out, my nominee for ambassador to England is John L. Lewis. His $50,000 salary and $25,000 expense account give him the necessary financial background.

And what an impressive figure old John would make at the court of St. James—with his florid Shakespearean oratory, his ponderous, eloquent eyebrows. In knee breeches and silk hose he would be unforgettable. The labor government of England would have to sit up and listen to a man who won a $100 a month pension for American coal miners.

Perhaps it is time we widened the whole base on which government leaders are appointed—and include men and women from all classes. It is an essence of the Democratic belief that people grow with responsibility.

And this is an era of experiment anyway. The nation's foreign policy of seeking world peace is largely being carried out by professional military men even as, paradoxically, gentle scientists are researching the weapons for a possible third world war.

Just for a starter, I have compiled a tentative list of appointees, which is being forwarded to Key West by the next passenger pigeon that flies this way. Here it is:

For secretary of agriculture—Milton Berle, who has run the price of corn up to the highest peak in his history. Or Fred Allen, who gets about as much for chaff.

MYERS SUGGESTS CONGRESS TIMETABLE

The end of an average session of the United States Congress finds the members working like so many dilatory students around final examination time. They do a lot of cramming to cover work that should have been done months before. And while they may get finished, their efforts at best are often ill-considered.

For example, the last-minute haste of the 80th Congress may have helped to defeat the Republicans in this month's elections. In voting an 11th-hour appropriation for the Commodity Credit Corporation, the GOP-controlled Congress failed to vote the CCC funds for additional storage for farm products.

The farmers meanwhile had harvested bumper crops of grain. But this surplus harvest had to be stored in government-approved space in order to make it eligible for support prices. Congress didn't supply the space. The farmers stood to lose money, and the Democrats capitalized on this fact. That may be the big reason why the GOP lost that "safe" rural vote in Ohio, Illinois and Iowa. Without those states' 63 electoral votes Mr. Truman would not have had the required number to give him an undisputed victory.

Sen. Francis J. Myers of Pennsylvania, being a Democrat, probably is happy about the above incident. But he also knows that the embarrassing results of hasty legislation can work both ways. And he realizes that haste can be bad for the whole country. So, in the interest of safety and efficiency, he has proposed a mild remedy.

He would put major legislation on a timetable basis. The majority leaders of both houses, the committee chairmen and ranking minority members of committees would meet early in each session and schedule legislation. This schedule would be reviewed each 30 days and, if necessary, revised. There would be "goal" dates for committee hearings, for full consideration of bills and for a vote on them.

The Myers proposal would include all appropriation bills as well as other legislation. And it would strive to eliminate the evil of attaching irrelevant legislative riders to appropriations in the final rush.

Since ideally, this plan would bring about some much-needed reforms, we should like to feel more encouraged about it than we do. But it will have to buck the opposition of tradition, indifference and reluctance which has kept the recent congressional reorganization from working as well as it might and should.

In addition, there are practical difficulties, as Mr. Myers is aware. Unforeseen and urgent bills, investigation and presidential appointments could throw the timerable off schedule. And it is not likely that the Myers plan would move the Senate to surrender its cherished right to filibuster.

Still, the idea might work some improvement. The legislative schedule, if adopted, should receive wide publicity. It could then become part of the Congress' record, and contribute a clearer history of various pieces of legislation. With the plan working even moderately well, the public would have a better idea of which members of Congress were dragging their feet, and why.

TOWARD UNITY IN UNIFICATION

Defense Secretary Forrestal has ordered the three armed services to thrash out their differences on legislation in his office instead of running to Congress with them. That's a great idea if he can make it work, and should do a lot to bring more real unity into the unification program.

But nothing in the Forrestal order prevents a congressional committee from subpoenaing an officer of any of the three branches to testify in favor of a pet theory which he shares with a committee member. We hope then, that Congress will go along with the excellent spirit of the secretary's decision and help to advance the idea that better national defense, not the promotion of one service, is the goal and purpose of unification.

Current news from Washington gives us hope that the housing situation is finally heading back to normal. The owners of the White House have given the present tenant a long-term lease, have agreed to repair and redecorate, and will permit said tenant to have large parties, keep the back porch he added on, and play the piano late at night.

About time to start making plans for entering the Christmas Home Decorating Contest, which has been announced by the Chamber of Commerce.

It's mighty hard to wake up the average careless driver without pinching him.

The average man has no head for figures, says a professor. Just an eye!

Here And There

Some idea of how the deer population of the state has increased in the last forty years may be had from the following item reprinted from the Evening Mirror of November 17, 1908, which says: "The deer season opened on Monday and there are more deer in Pennsylvania today than for the last thirty years," said State Game Commissioner Kalbfus. The season legally begins on the 15th, but that is Sunday, so the season opens the next day. I think there will be more deer shot this fall than for a long time," continued the Commissioner. "You see the state has been protecting them and we have a short season. They have multiplied recently, as the state does not allow lawns to be shot. Only horned deer may be taken. The recent fires have driven them out to places where they are comparatively near settlements and they have been seen in many places where no deer have been in fifty years." The item then continues with the following local comment: "A number of deer have been reported to the north of us, and if this tracking snow continues to lay it is not improbable that the hunters of this end of the state will kill their share."

This And That: State employees will get a four-day Thanksgiving vacation—Gov. James H. Duff has notified department heads that state offices will be closed from Wednesday, Nov. 24, at five p. m., until Monday, Nov. 29, without skeleton staff on the job, until noon. . . . One of those "wheelbarrow" election bets as paid off at noon Saturday, in the business section of Corry, when Deweyman Arthur Ives, of Erie, driver for the Henneous Motor Express, was the propelling force behind the barrow in which Wallace Taydus, of Toledo, shipping employee at the Complete with police escort, Taydus rode while Ives pushed from Washington street to the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks on North Center street. . . . A "false front" has been erected across that vacant piece of property in Hickory street between the IOOF building and the New Process Company, and when it is removed there will be revealed one of those attractive Christmas displays that are to be erected in the borough through the joint cooperation of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Retail Merchants of the Chamber of Commerce. . . . Any day now, rules and regulations for the Christmas Home Decoration contest, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, will be announced, and according to reports many homeowners are planning to enter. . . . Coupons for entering the contest are being prepared and will be printed in the very near future. . . . Clifford Moore, of Songbird, over in McKean county, keeps his icebox on his back porch, just outside the kitchen door. About midnight Saturday he thought he heard a night prowler so he got up to investigate and upon opening the door he came face to face with a big black bear, helping himself to Mr. Moore's stock of provisions. . . . According to one sportsman rabbit hunting in the woods resolves itself now into the experience which your dogs possess. While rabbits were rather plentiful, especially along the highways, previous to the opening of the season, they seem to be wary of the corps of hunters, and have to be "kicked out". . . . The Augustana Lutheran Synod, embracing 1,250 congregations, including the First Lutheran church here, has compiled a list of ministers based on length of service, and the Rev. Dr. Julius Lincoln, former pastor of the First Lutheran church of Jamestown, well known to many in Warren, present pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church, Chicago, is listed as No. 9 in a total of 1,000, and Rev. Dr. Felix V. Hanson, of Lutheran Emmanuel church, Jamestown, since 1910, is listed as No. 49—Dr. Lincoln, many in Warren will be interested to learn, plans to retire from the ministry at the close of the year. He served the Jamestown church for 22 years and his total period in the ministry consists of 55 years, including seven years beyond the constitutional limit of 70, in Trinity church, Chicago. . . . The Yuletide season is just around the corner—a truck loaded with Christmas trees drove past the Times-Mirror late Tuesday afternoon.

Many Activities Are Planned By Jaycee Auxiliary

A busy program of activities for the coming months was outlined at the monthly meeting of the Jaycee Auxiliary, held Monday evening at the YMCA. Mrs. Glenn Nelson called the meeting to order and presented each member with a copy of the by-laws.

It was decided to adopt a needy family and to present it with groceries and a turkey for the Christmas holidays.

Plans were completed for the Christmas party for children of all Jaycee members, to be held December 18 at the YMCA. Each child present will receive a gift and members will be contacted in the near future to work out arrangements.

Mrs. Nelson appointed the following as a committee to help the Jaycees with their dance to be held at the Marconi Outing Club on Thanksgiving night: Mrs. John Newmaker, chairman; Mrs. Willis Lundahl, Mrs. Richard Meacham, Mrs. Harry Kopf, Mrs. Robert Lewis, Mrs. Michael Bova, and Mrs. W. E. Lutz, Jr.

All members were asked to bring to the next meeting, on December 20, gifts of clothing and toys to be distributed during the holiday season.

Miss Claire Elliott, of the Children's Aid Society, was guest speaker. She explained the purpose of her organization and gave some heart-warming examples of the welfare work. She outlined several ways in which the auxiliary might be of assistance to her organization and members decided to make this activity their main project during the entire year.

Announcement of Program For YW Fellowship Tea

All friends in the community interested in observance of World Fellowship Week are cordially invited by the local YWCA to attend its annual tea to be held in the activities building at 2:30 p. m. Thursday.

In addition to the address on "What I Saw in the Philippines," by Mrs. Otto Houser, just recently returned from Manila, the program for the afternoon will include a devotional period conducted by Miss Maybelle Baislow, president of the YW board; "What Is Fellowship" by Mrs. Carl Lundahl, past president; and selections by a flute trio composed of Dorothy Bohren, Elizabeth Dunham and Nancy Whipple.

Mrs. Carl Whipple is general chairman of the committee on arrangements for the tea, with Mrs. Clarence Strawn in charge of the music; Mrs. Paul Jackson, Mrs. Willis Loding and Mrs. Harold Putnam, decorations; Mrs. Ralph Owens, Miss Pearl Lund, Mrs. Grover Lind, Mrs. Frank Weed, tea; Earl Christensen and Mrs. Warren Miller, tickets; Mrs. Bertram Messerly, publicity.

All are reminded that tickets may be had at the YW and that all proceeds from the tea are used to promote greater World Fellowship among all peoples of the world.

Prompt Reservations Urged For Play; Less Than 100 Seats For Non-members

To be assured of seats for the production of "Portrait in Black" in December 2-3, the Warren Players today advise club members and others to apply early for mail order reservations so that requests for tickets will be in the hands of Miss Edna Glasser, box office chairman, by Monday, November 22.

Due to the unprecedented membership this year, there are less than 100 seats available for the general public. Members of the Warren Players will be given preference, of course, but the seats for this presentation are all good and the 100 seats for the public will soon be absorbed.

Members are reminded to enclose their membership tickets with stamped and self-addressed return envelope. If additional seats are requested, the applicant is required merely to enclose the advertised admission price for each one desired. The general public will follow the same procedure, being certain to state clearly the date desired and the choice of location. It is, obviously, impossible to fill all orders for the exact location but reservations are made very fairly, envelopes are numbered as received and the reservations made in order of receipt. All requests should be mailed to The Warren Players, Box 568, Warren, Pa.

Miss Glasser further advises playgoers today that they will have a better chance for seats on Friday evening, inasmuch as Thursday is generally more in demand. Therefore, where it is possible it would be to the advantage of the ticket holder to attend on Friday evening, December 3, rather than on Thursday.

"Portrait in Black" is an unusual presentation, one that will hold the interest throughout and tend to astound everyone with the unexpected ending.

The excellent work of David Clark Fuellhart, youngest actor ever to be presented by The Warren Players, is, in itself, more than worth the entire cost of a year's membership. David, who will star in "Portrait in Black," has reached the ripe old age of ten years, but is going and will give a performance even better than the most seasoned veteran.

In Faculty Series

The Pennsylvania State College Credit Class Center, which formally opened classes in Bradford September 27, reports an enrollment of 56 students and a faculty of 12. A full freshman schedule in basic courses is being maintained. In a series of articles, currently appearing in the Bradford Era and covering the personal and educational background of faculty members, the following featured Miss Edith Carlin, 4 Conewango Place, Warren, who was named in August for the French instructorship of the new unit.

A teacher in French at Bradford's Penn State Credit Class Center, Edith R. Carlin, now considers Warren, Pa., as her home town, although she finished high school in Detroit, Mich.

She enrolled in Albion College, Albion, Mich., but later transferred to the University of Michigan, receiving her A. B. degree from that institution with a major in French.

She took her graduate study at the well-known French School of Middlebury College in Vermont, studying under such eminent teachers as Michel Fargment, famous French grammarian, and Mme. Jacqueline Bertrand of Paris.

Miss Carlin has varied interest in her work at Bradford Senior High School. She is particularly well known for her ability to handle effectively massed color, costume, and lighting in the presentation of pageantry. She will likewise be remembered for her work in such local high school successes as "Ten Little Indians" and "The Late Christopher Bean."

Her hobbies are largely cultural and artistic. She enjoys making original costume jewelry and studying the cello.

She is currently serving for the second time as president of the Bradford Orchestral Society, of which group she is a charter member. She plays in the cello section and anticipates an active and successful season for the organization.

15 States To Issue Single License Plate

Washington, D. C.—Passenger car owners in fifteen states will use only a single license plate on their automobiles next year, according to the American Automobile Association's annual survey of state motor vehicle registration and license tags.

The A. A. A. report, just released, points out that seven years ago, in 1942, all states were issuing double license plates. But the war emergency and the accompanying restrictions on the use of metals caused all but a handful of states to adopt the single license plate. Gradually the practice of issuing two license plates is being resumed.

Also, as a hold-over from the war years, seven states will retain their 1947 or 1948 license plates, validating them for use during 1948 with year date tabs. Five states now issue permanent type plates—Connecticut, Delaware, Maryland, Missouri and Wisconsin. The latter two states, in adopting the permanent plate system have also abandoned the yearly registration period and now have a registration period of twelve months, but with plates expiring at the end of each month of the year. In these states the expiration date is indicated on the license plate itself.

The A. A. A. noted that somber colors used during the war years are being replaced with more vivid hues. The aluminum color, now being used instead of white in a great many states, will appear next year with varying shades of green, red and blue. Other color combinations include red-on-cream for Florida; canary yellow-on-royal blue for Illinois; blue-on-silver for Nevada; straw-on-black for New Jersey; and cream-on-blue for the Canal Zone.

While more and more states are announcing their so-called "period of grace" for securing the next year's automobile license plates in advance of the stated expiration date, nearly a dozen states last year granted last-minute extensions. Hence, careful checks should be made by enforcement officials in order to avoid false arrests for operation of vehicles on expired plates, the A. A. A. pointed out.
